

The Fallout logo is positioned in the upper left corner. It features the word "Fallout" in a white, stylized, sans-serif font, enclosed within a white rectangular border with rounded corners. The background of the entire image is a close-up, high-contrast photograph of a heavily rusted and worn mechanical engine, likely from a vehicle or piece of industrial machinery. The metal surfaces are dark, with patches of lighter, rusted areas and various bolts, pipes, and mechanical components visible. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the rust and the metallic surfaces.
